2. User Rights

2.1. During the Term, Customer is granted a non-exclusive, non-sublicensable and non-assignable right for Authorized Users to use the Product and any information provided by O24 in relation to the Product (the "Information") in the United States and Canada solely for Customer's and its Subsidiaries' internal use. Unless agreed in writing by O24, Customer shall not wholly or partially copy or modify the Product or the Information, grant any third party any right to use the Product or the Information, or use the Product or the Information on behalf of any third party.

2.2. Neither Customer nor Authorized Users are acquiring any property rights or Intellectual Property Rights whatsoever in the Product, the Services or the Information, and Customer agrees not to (and shall cause Authorized Users not to) challenge or claim any right to the Product, the Services or the Information or any other Intellectual Property Rights of O24 or any O24 Provider or member of the O24 Group. O24 (and/or the applicable O24 Provider) retains all Intellectual Property Rights in the Products, the Services and the Information, including inter alia all source code and other materials developed by O24 (and/or the applicable O24 Provider) to deliver Services for the Customer, project specifications, and reports provided to the Customer.

2.3. Customer shall be responsible for all actions and omissions of Authorized Users. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any action or omission by an Authorized User with respect to this Agreement or the Products, the Services or the Information shall be deemed to be an action or omission by Customer.

2.4. Any license where pool of scans for any Product purchased is valid for twelve (12) months only. Any unused scans cannot be transferred to renewal license periods, future license periods or refunded by O24 to Customer.

2.5. Outpost24 Lifecycle Policy. The Product and/or Services remain in support if the following criteria are met: 1) Customer have a valid Agreement to use the Product and/or Service with O24 or its partners, and 2) Customer must stay current as specified in clause 2.6.

2.6. Change notification. Changes for the Product and Services may be more or less frequent and require Customer to be alert for forthcoming modifications to their Product and/or Services. Unless otherwise noted, O24's will provide a minimum of thirty (30) days' written notification when Customer is required to take action to upgrade in order to avoid significant degradation to the normal use of the Product or Service. O24 releases new features on an approximately quarterly basis (every three (3) months.) Customer must accept upgrades within ninety (90) days of the release of such upgrades so Customer remains no more than one (1) released version behind current version at any time in order to be eligible for customer support by O24. All updates will be made available to Customer free of charge during the license period.

2.7. O24 will provide a minimum of twelve (12) months' notification prior to ending support if no successor Product or Service is offered—excluding free services or preview releases.

2.8. (For training services only): Customer receives access to the Product with an access code to the purchased course. The access code will be active for one (1) year or until the course has been completed by the Participant whichever is the shortest period. Hereafter the access code will no longer be valid and Customer will have to renew course access rights through purchasing the course again, if the Customer would still like to take the course. Certifications are valid for one (1) year and must be renewed within one (1) year after completion to uphold the status of Outpost24 Certified.

2.9. (For Snapshot only): The Customer may not request that more than 10% of the total Snapshot engagements are used per month.

3. Services and Customer Support

3.1. O24 will provide the Services and Customer shall pay the Service Fees.

3.2. Should the Services include implementation services, O24 will use commercially reasonable efforts to deliver the Services by the date of delivery specified in the Service and Product Description.

3.3. In those cases where the use of cloud-based Services is likely to cause harm or risk of harm to O24, an O24 Provider, the Customer, a Subsidiary or a third party, O24 may suspend or limit the Customer's and Authorized Users' access to the cloud-based Services, or take any other action that it believes is appropriate under the circumstances, in order to mitigate the risk of harm. O24 shall promptly notify the Customer of any such suspension, limitation of access or other actions.

3.4. During the Term of this Agreement, to the extent set forth in the Quotation or otherwise agreed to between the parties in writing, O24 will provide customer support to the Customer regarding the Product and Services by means of the O24 customer support portal and through information made available on O24's website. For the purpose of clarity, O24's has no obligation to provide customer support to Authorized Users who are not employees of Customer. A requirement for O24 to be able to provide customer service to Customer is that Customer grants O24 access to the Products Customer has purchased a license to. Without access granted by Customer, O24 cannot provide the requested customer support and hence not be responsible or liable for any potential defects or configurations related to the Products.

3.5. If the Service and Product Description specifies that any of the Services are to be provided by named individuals, O24 may nonetheless substitute staff at its discretion; provided, however, that in such circumstances O24 it will endeavor to give reasonable notice, and to provide equivalent replacement staff whom the Customer will be given the opportunity to approve. Further, O24 periodic staff training, vacation and holidays may lead to staff being absent from assignments for short periods. O24 will endeavor to avoid any disruption to the progress of the assignment.

3.6. The parties shall, as soon as possible, inform each other of any and all relevant circumstances and events, such as modifications, problems, delays and other matters which may be of significance for provision of the Services. Any required follow-up in relation to the Services will be by e-mail or telephone, unless otherwise agreed.

3.7. The Customer must inform O24 in writing in the applicable Service Description about any particular data and/or statistics that O24 should include in a report. If this has not been included in the applicable Service Description, O24 will include the data that O24 finds relevant and no other data will be collected.

4. Fees and Payment

4.1. The Subscription Fee will be invoiced prior to the beginning of the Term. Payment terms are net thirty (30) days. Sales tax and any other applicable tax will be added to the invoice. If the Customer requires any documentation eg. apostilles, tax residence certificates etc. all costs related to obtaining such documentation will be in addition to the Subscription Fee and will be invoiced Customer on the same terms and specified in this section 4 (Fees and Payment). If Customer is required to deduct or withhold any tax, Customer must pay the amount deducted or withheld as required by law and pay O24 an additional amount so that O24 receives payment in full as if there were no deduction or withholding from Customer.

4.2. In the event of failure by Customer to pay an invoice when due, O24 has the right to immediately terminate the Agreement by a written notice or notice by email. In case of such termination, O24 will refund to Customer any Subscription Fee already paid for the time period after the termination becomes effective. Customer shall not be entitled to any further refund of the Subscription Fee. Interest on outstanding payments will be charged at a rate of one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month from the date on which the payment was due until full payment has been received, or the highest rate permitted by applicable law, whichever is less.

4.3. O24 shall have the right to change the Fees in connection with each renewal term. Such change must be communicated by O24 to Customer in writing or by email no later than sixty (60) days prior to the expiration of the then-current term. In the event the Agreement is not terminated by Customer in accordance with Section 11.2, the amended Fees shall apply during the renewal term. O24 can without notice to the Customer, increase the Fee with the Swedish consumer price index upon auto renewal of the Agreement in accordance with clause 11.2.

4.4. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, Service Fees are based on the time spent providing the Services at the applicable Service Fee rates.

4.5. Expenses incurred in connection with providing the Services, including report production, travel, meals and hotels, and on goods and services purchased on the Customer's behalf, are charged at cost. For travel, O24's standard policies allow for first class rail and economy class air travel within the country that the applicable person is based and business class or equivalent for international travel.

4.6. Service Fees are based on a standard day of 7.5 hours and a five-day week, excluding holidays. Where overtime is required, such hours will be charged at an enhanced rate.

4.7. After any Professional Services project has been scheduled and agreed by the Customer and O24, if the Customer needs to postpone or reschedule the applicable project, this must be done at least seven (7) days in advance and no penalty will then be charged. In the event the Customer postpones or reschedules the applicable project within seven (7) days of the starting date, 100% of the week's project cost will be charged to a maximum five (5) billing days. In the event of full cancellation of the applicable project after receipt of signed agreement no refund shall be provided. Customer must provide O24 with the minimum required data for Professional Service delivery for the applicable project, minimum five (5) days before the agreed upon project start date, or the applicable project will be cancelled by O24, and no refunds will be made.

4.8. O24 will not compensate the customer for any delays due to issues on the Customer's side when performing Services and the Customer will in this case be invoiced for the entire length of the project even if testing cannot be performed parts of the time.

4.9. O24 will invoice the Fees with reasonable itemization.

4.10. The Customer shall pay all amounts due under this Agreement in full without any deduction or withholding except as required by law and the Customer shall not be entitled to assert any credit, offset or counterclaim against O24 in order to justify withholding payment of any such amount in whole or in part. O24 may, without limiting its other rights or remedies, offset any amount owed by the Customer against any amount payable by O24 to the Customer.

5. Intellectual Property

5.1. If any infringement of the Intellectual Property Rights of any O24 Group member or any O24 Provider comes to the attention of Customer, Customer shall promptly notify O24 in writing to legal@outpost24.com. As between O24 and Customer, O24 shall in its sole discretion decide upon the actions to be taken in connection with such possible infringements.

5.2. Customer shall promptly notify O24 in writing to legal@outpost24.com in the event Customer becomes aware that the Product or Services are claimed to infringe any third party Intellectual Property Rights. As between O24 and Customer, O24 shall in its sole discretion decide upon the actions to be taken in connection with such possible claims for infringement.

5.3. O24 shall indemnify Customer against all third party claims, liabilities, and costs (including reasonable attorneys' fees), which are made by a third party in the territory alleging that Customer's authorized use of the Products and/or Services in accordance with this Agreement infringes such third parties' United States Intellectual Property Rights; provided, however, that (i) O24 shall have full control of the defense and any settlement of such claim, and (ii) the Customer shall cooperate fully in the defense of such claim. The foregoing indemnity shall not apply to the extent the infringement claim, liability or cost arises from any access or use of the Product or Service in violation of this Agreement. O24 is not obligated to indemnify Customer or any third party for any indirect or consequential damages, such as, inter alia, loss of revenue, loss of profits, loss of anticipated savings, wasted expenditures, damage to reputation, loss of data and business information.

5.4. In the event a Product or Service is likely to become or is the subject of a claim for infringement of an Intellectual Property Right of a third party, O24 shall at its expense and discretion do one of the following: (a) replace the Product or Service (or parts thereof) with compatible, functionally-equivalent non-infringing technology; (b) modify the Product or Service (or parts thereof) to make such Product or Service non-infringing without materially impairing the Customer's ability to use the Product or Service in accordance with this Agreement; or (c) procure, at no increased cost to Customer, the right to continue to use the Product or Service. If the foregoing alternatives are not reasonably available to O24, O24 may, at its discretion, terminate this Agreement and refund to Customer any Fees paid by Customer to O24 for the use of the Product for a time period after the termination becomes effective.

5.5. The remedies set forth in this Section 5 shall be Customer's sole and exclusive remedy and O24's sole obligation for infringement of any third party's Intellectual Property Rights.

5.6. Except as otherwise set out in the Service and Product Description, the Customer acknowledges that all Intellectual Property Rights related to the Services and Products as well as any modifications thereto belong to O24 (and/or the other members of the O24 Group and/or the O24 Providers), and the Customer shall have no rights in or to the Services and Products other than the right to use them in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

6. Confidentiality

6.1. Scope.

- (a) "Confidential Information" means all information of the O24 Group and/or the O24 Providers, on the one hand, or Customer or its Subsidiaries, on the other hand (as applicable, the "Disclosing Party") disclosed during the Term to the other party (the "Receiving Party") whether orally, in writing or by inspection of tangible objects, software or documentation, and that is:
- (i) marked "confidential" (or comparable legend);
 - (ii) identified as confidential when disclosed orally and summarized in writing within thirty (30) days after oral disclosure;
 - (iii) readily and reasonably identifiable as confidential based on its nature and/or the circumstances of its disclosure; or
 - (iv) demonstrated and observed by the Receiving Party as being confidential, for example during a visit to the Disclosing Party's (as defined below) facility.
- (b) Notwithstanding Section 6.1(a), the Information is O24's Confidential Information.

6.2. Exceptions.

- (a) The obligations under this Article 6 do not apply to any Confidential Information following such information becoming:
- (i) known to the Receiving Party (with no obligation of confidentiality with respect to such information) prior to receipt from the Disclosing Party and can be so shown through appropriate evidence; or

- (ii) publicly known or which becomes publicly known through no act or failure to act of Receiving Party; or
 - (iii) independently developed by the Receiving Party and such independent development can be shown by appropriate evidence; or
 - (iv) rightfully received from a third party in good faith which has no obligation of confidentiality with respect to such information; or
 - (v) intentionally provided by the Disclosing Party to a third party without restriction.
- (b) The exceptions of Section 6.2(a) shall not be applicable for information merely because it is included in more general non-Confidential Information, nor for any combination of information merely because individual elements are qualified as non-confidential.

6.3. Secrecy Obligation.

- (a) The Receiving Party shall hold in confidence and shall not disclose any of the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information to any third party or release any of the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information into the public domain.
- (b) The Receiving Party shall obligate all of its employees, officers, consultants, subcontractors and agents to whom such Confidential Information is communicated to at least the same degree of confidentiality as is set forth in this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Receiving Party warrants that disclosure of the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information shall be limited to those employees, officers, consultants, subcontractors or agents who have an actual need to know for the purpose set forth in this Agreement.
- (c) The Receiving Party shall protect the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information from disclosure with the same standard of care that it applies for the protection of its own Confidential Information, but with no less than a reasonable standard of care.
- (d) The Receiving Party may only use the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information for the purpose of this Agreement.
- (e) Notwithstanding the foregoing, either Receiving Party may disclose the Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party pursuant to a court order or an order of any public authority, provided that the Receiving Party must (i) give immediate notice thereof to the Disclosing Party, and (ii) reasonably assist the Disclosing Party, at the Disclosing Party's expense, in avoiding the disclosure of Confidential Information as may be permissible under Applicable Law.

6.4. Return of Confidential Information.

- (a) All Confidential Information provided by the Disclosing Party to the Receiving Party pursuant to this Agreement shall be and remain the property of the Disclosing Party, and Confidential Information in written or electronic form, and any copies thereof, shall be promptly returned to Disclosing Party upon written request. At the sole option of the Disclosing Party, the Receiving Party shall destroy all Confidential Information in written or electronic form and provide written confirmation thereof to the Disclosing Party.
- (b) Section 6.4(a) does not apply to (i) back-up copies of electronic data exchange made in the ordinary course of business or (ii) to Confidential Information and/or copies thereof that the Receiving Party or its consultants are obligated to keep under applicable law, provided that any such Confidential Information and/or copies thereof shall be subject to an indefinite confidentiality obligation according to the terms of this Agreement.

6.5. Duration. The obligations under this Article 6 shall apply during the Term of this Agreement as well as a period of three (3) years thereafter.

7. Customer Requirements

7.1. The Customer shall follow all instructions given by O24 regarding the use of the Products and Services.

7.2. The Customer shall grant O24 access to documents, data, servers, equipment, web applications, mobile applications and premises ("Customer Equipment") and allow O24 to monitor/scan such Customer Equipment from external and/or internal locations to the extent necessary for provision of the Products and Services and to process and generate back-ups of information/logs generated by the Customer's use of the Products and Services. Moreover, the Customer shall provide O24 with correct information and documentation, and shall inform O24 of decisions in respect of the Customer's business to the extent necessary to enable O24 to perform its obligations in accordance with this Agreement. If permission for O24 to perform Services on Customer Equipment or for O24 to get access to Customer Equipment requires permission from a third party, it is the responsibility of the Customer to obtain such a permission in writing before O24 can start performing any Services.

7.3. Some Products and Services may involve activities that could be considered acts or preparation to, inter alia, damage of property and trespassing, such as penetration testing or port scanning. The Customer therefore gives its consent to O24 and its subcontractors to conduct such activities towards equipment used by the Customer, however, only to the extent necessary to provide such Product and Services. Should the affected equipment be owned, controlled or hosted by a third party, the Customer shall obtain consent from the affected third party to conduct such Services. Further, it is the responsibility of the Customer to have a backup in place before Services are performed and the Customer must be aware that systems can be effected when performing Services, hence O24 recommends not to perform Services on productivity environments.

7.4. Virus descriptions, vulnerability definitions and vulnerability reports, as the case may be, are made accessible to the Customer, to the extent agreed between the parties in writing, via a secure login mechanism on O24's website via the platform "Outscan". Customer is responsible for ensuring that it does not divulge its user-id or password to any unauthorized third party, and for choosing sufficiently secure user-id and password combinations. O24 holds no responsibility for technical impact beyond its control, including those caused by third party software not under the control of O24.

7.5. During the Term and for six months thereafter, the Customer will not offer to hire as an employee or consultant, either directly or indirectly, anyone who has provided any of the Services or any other personnel of the O24 Group. In the event that Customer breaches this Section 7.5, Customer shall pay O24 as liquidated damages an amount equal to 1/3 of such person's annual compensation.

8. Limitation of Liability

8.1. The total cumulative liability of O24 under this Agreement shall be limited to the amount of the Fees paid by the Customer to O24 under this Agreement during the twelve months prior to the applicable claim for damages. The foregoing maximum liability amount represents a total aggregate liability cap and not an occurrence based liability cap.

8.2. O24 shall not be liable for (i) any indirect, incidental, special or consequential damages arising out of or relating to this Agreement, including any loss of revenue, loss of profits, loss of anticipated savings, wasted expenditures, damage to reputation, loss of data and business information, even if such party has been advised of the possibility of such damages, (ii) any claims of third parties, with the exception of indemnification under Section 5.3 for claims arising from the violation of Intellectual Property Rights of third parties, or (iii) cancellation and/or re-booking of training services, where the Participant leaves the Customer as an employee and the Participant holds the status of being Outpost24 Certified,.

8.3. O24 shall not, under any circumstances, be liable for damages, which at the time of this Agreement could not have been reasonably foreseen or taken into account by O24.

8.4. The Customer is responsible for backing up its data. Accordingly, O24 shall not be liable for any Customer data loss. The Customer shall indemnify and hold O24 harmless for any physical damages to any persons or property caused by any Participant.

8.5. All dates supplied by O24 for the delivery of the Services shall be treated as approximate only. O24 shall not in any circumstances be liable for any loss or damage arising from any delay in delivery beyond such approximate dates.

8.6. All references to "O24" in this Section 8 shall be treated as including all O24 Group members and the O24 Providers, and all or their agents, officers, directors, employees, subcontractors and suppliers, all of whom shall have the benefit, mutatis mutandis, of the exclusions and limitations of liability set out in this Section 8.

8.7. O24 shall not be liable to any third party for reports, advice or services, regardless of whether any disclosure or provision to such third party is permitted.

8.8. The Customer will not bring any action against any of the O24 Providers or against the O24 Group members, except O24, in conjunction with this Agreement.

8.9. The Customer agrees that it has fully considered the provisions of this section and all the other provisions of this Agreement and agrees that they are reasonable in the light of all the factors relating to this Agreement.

9. Warranty and Disclaimer

9.1. Except as expressly set forth in this Section 9, O24 disclaims all warranties with regard to the Product and Services, including without limitation any warranty of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, non-infringement or that all vulnerabilities will be found.

9.2. O24 warrants that the Products and Services to be provided shall substantially comply with the Service and Product Description.

9.3. Customer shall determine the proper use of the Product, the Services, and the Information and accepts all responsibility for its use thereof. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Customer accepts all risks and responsibility for the suitability, usefulness and fitness for a particular purpose of the Information and for the use of the Product, the Services, and the Information, including (a) whether they achieve the intended result, and (b) for the suitability of, use of, results obtained from and fitness for a particular purpose of the Product, the Services, and the Information. O24's responsibility and liability shall at all times be subject to the limitations set forth in this Agreement.

9.4. O24 does not warrant that the telephone lines, the Internet and/or other networks will offer optimal access as it depends on third party telecommunication providers for the use and/or provision of the connection.

9.5. Each party represents and warrants that it is a duly and validly organized and existing entity in good standing under the applicable law of the jurisdiction of its organization.

10. Force Majeure

10.1. Neither party shall be responsible for delays or failures to perform by reason of circumstances outside its responsible control, including, without limitation, changes in laws and regulations or in the interpretation thereof, acts of authorities, war, labor disputes, blockades, major accidents and currency restrictions. Both parties shall be entitled to immediately terminate this Agreement in writing should, due to an event of force majeure, the performance of a certain obligation be delayed for more than three (3) months.

11. Term and Termination

11.1. Proposals presented by O24 to the Customer are valid for 30 days from the date of issue, unless otherwise indicated.

11.2. This Agreement becomes effective upon signature by both parties and, unless terminated in accordance with this Section 11, shall continue in effect until the Expiration Date (the initial term). This Agreement will continue in effect for successive renewal terms having the same duration as the initial term unless either party gives the other party written notice of termination at least thirty (30) days in advance of end of the then-current Term.

11.3. Without prejudice to any other remedy either party may have against the other party for breach or non-performance of this Agreement, each party shall have the right to immediately terminate this Agreement for cause by giving the other party written notice thereof (i) if the other party materially breaches any of the provisions of this Agreement and fails to cure such breach within thirty (30) days after receipt of notice in writing from the complaining party, or (ii) if the other party becomes bankrupt or insolvent or subject to any bankruptcy, insolvency or receivership proceeding.

11.4. In the event the Customer terminates the Agreement, O24 will refund to Customer any Subscription Fee already paid for the time period after the termination becomes effective. Customer shall not be entitled to any further refund of the Subscription Fee.

11.5. Upon termination of the Agreement, Customer shall immediately stop using the Products and Services. If Customer continues to use any Product or Service after termination of the Agreement, Customer shall pay to O24 liquidated damages of the greater of (i) the amount of the monthly Subscription Fee for each week the Product or Service is used after termination of the Agreement, or (ii) $1,000 per week.

11.6. If the Service and Product Description includes any PCI related services, the Customer shall have the right to terminate this Agreement immediately upon notice if O24 ceases to be a PCI Approved Scanning Vendor.

12. Miscellaneous

12.1. Customer shall not have the right to assign any right or obligation under this Agreement without prior written consent of O24. O24 shall have the right to assign rights and obligations under this Agreement to third parties without prior consent of Customer.

12.2. Amendments, modifications and alterations to this Agreement shall be made in writing signed by both parties.

12.3. All notices pursuant to this Agreement shall be sent to the addresses and contact persons set forth in this Agreement, or to such address and/or contact person that O24 or Customer, as the case may be, shall specify in writing to the other party. All communication between O24 and Customer shall be in English, unless otherwise agreed. In addition, copies of all notices to O24 shall be sent to legal@outpost24.com unless it is a termination of the Agreement, which shall be sent to termination@outpost24.com.

12.4. If any party should at any time waive its rights due to a breach or default by the other party of any of the provisions of this Agreement, such waiver shall not be construed as a waiver regarding other breaches or defaults of the same or other provisions of this Agreement.

12.5. This Agreement sets forth the entire agreement between the parties hereto and supersedes any other agreement or understanding, whether written or oral, which may have existed between O24 and Customer with respect to the subject matter hereof.

12.6. The O24 Group and the O24 Providers are intended third party beneficiaries of this Agreement.

12.7. In the event any provision of this Agreement shall for any reason be held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect any other term or provision hereof. The parties agree that they will negotiate in good faith or will permit a court or arbitrator to replace any provision hereof so held invalid, illegal or unenforceable with a valid provision which is as similar as possible in substance to the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision.

12.8. The following shall survive and termination or expiration of this Agreement: (i) payment obligations for amounts incurred during the Term; and (ii) Sections 2.2, 2.3, 4.2, 4.9, 5, 6 (for the duration specified therein), 7.5 (for the duration specified therein), and 8 – 13.

12.9. O24 automatically collects usage and performance data from the Product. This data will be used to provide and improve O24’s products and services and enhance the user experience of the Products. Additional data gathering for statistical purposes not identifiable to individual systems or customers may be used after customer acceptance for participation in such a program.

13. Applicable Law and Arbitration

13.1. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Illinois, without giving effect to the choice of law principles thereof.

13.2. Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, shall be finally settled by one single arbitrator in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association, as such rules may be modified by this Agreement. The place of the arbitration shall be Chicago, Illinois. The language to be used in the proceedings shall be English.

13.3. Notwithstanding Section 9.2 above, O24 shall, in its sole discretion, be entitled to bring any action against Customer at any competent court in any matter relating to the protection of Intellectual Property Rights or relating to the collection of any payment from Customer.
